

Australian National Council of Orff Schulwerk

Founded in 1976, Australia has approximately 700 members

The six Australian state associations (Orff NSW, OSASA, QOSA, TOSA, VOSA and WAOSA) operate independently to promote the Orff Schulwerk and service the members in their region. The Australian National Council of Orff Schulwerk (ANCOS) is the umbrella body that acts as a central advisory, consultative and co-ordination point for the country.

KEY FUNCTIONS

Promote the teachings and philosophies of Orff Schulwerk in Australia	Nationally advocate for creative music and movement education	Maintain and foster connections with Orff Schulwerk associations throughout the world	Oversee and advance the four Australian Orff Level Training Courses and the Master Practitioner in Orff Schulwerk Certification	Administer financial assistance to support creative projects with an Orff focus	Facilitate and provide online access to the annual publication of the Musicworks journal
---	---	---	---	---	--

PROMOTING ORFF SCHULWERK

The biennial national conference is our showcase event. It is organised by the state associations on a rotational basis. With world-class presenters from Australia and abroad, this conference provides a solid platform to promote the Orff Schulwerk approach to new and longstanding members.

Further information can be obtained through www.ancos.org.au